Sonja Gehrlicher Joins Schletter Canada
As General Manager

As long-time general manager Ryan Kelly transitions in to his new role of vice president of sales for U.S operations, Sonja Gehrlicher will lead Canadian operations as general manager

February 6, 2013 — Windsor, Ontario — Schletter Canada®, a worldwide leader in photovoltaic mounting systems, is pleased to announce the addition of Sonja Gehrlicher in the position of General Manager. Gehrlicher will be responsible for creating and implementing sales strategies and maintaining lean, cost-effective production operations for the company's Canadian facility in Windsor, Ontario, reporting to Schletter North America's President and CEO Martin Hausner.

Prior to joining Schletter Canada, Gehrlicher served as General Manager for Provireo GmbH, a German project developer. "I am honored to join Schletter in the role of General Manager and look forward to working with the team to further enrich Schletter's commitment to customer service, quality and, cost-effective products," said Gehrlicher.

"I am pleased that Sonja will lead operations for Schletter Canada," explained president and CEO Martin Hausner. "She shares our values and our commitment to customer-focused policies, and she places the same strong emphasis on being cost competitive while developing innovative, quality products."

Gehrlicher will lead Schletter Canada as General Manager. The former General Manager, Ryan Kelly, is now vice president of sales for the company's U.S. operations.
